MORINGA FROM SALENTO

Precious as health

With 92 nutrients, 46 antioxidants, 18 amino acids, proteins, vitamins, mineral salts: Moringa oleifera is one of nature's healthiest and most nutritious foods, so much so that it has been identified as a Superfood by FAO.

To secondary metabolites, found in the leaves, have been attributed most of the biological properties of the plant. Our aim is to preserve and enhance these molecules.

It's rich in proteins with high biological value and all essential amino acids

It's rich in secondary metabolites: flavonoids, phenolic acids, alkaloids, glucosinolates, isothiocyanates and sterols

It contains elevate concentrations of β-carotene, vitamins (C, E, K, B1, B2, B5, B6, B9), and mineral salts (Ca, K, Fe, Na, Mg, Zn)

It contains high bioavailability of vitamin B9 (folic acid), essential for the functioning of red blood cells

It's an energy source, naturally caffeine-free
